Dear Commissioner

With Florida being the preferred retirement state on the east coast, it is unconscionable that FPL looks to raise rates, affecting thousands if not millions of seniors, with a large percentage of them on fixed incomes. Inflation is on the rise, and many goods are going up in price. How are we supposed to afford all of these price increases? I guess you can surmise that FPL does not care about its senior customers. Shameful!

Thank you,

Martin Mogelnicki
