COMPLAINT INFORMATION

Complaint: Other Complaints against Tampa Electric Company
Details:

Hi, I'm writing in response to TECO raising their rates once again and implementing fees due to Hurricane related issues. How is it, that this company has a monopoly within certain areas of Hillsborough country, allowing them to increase our billing when it suits them, while the consumer has no alternative providers to offset the price. Should not the additional burden of Acts of God be leveraged on the company and not the consumer? The profits made by TECO year after year are more than enough to offset losses sustained within out community. I believe I speak for many when I say that the Public Service Commission needs to address these concerns or risk unforeseen consequences stemming from prices hikes.
