To Whom It May Concern,

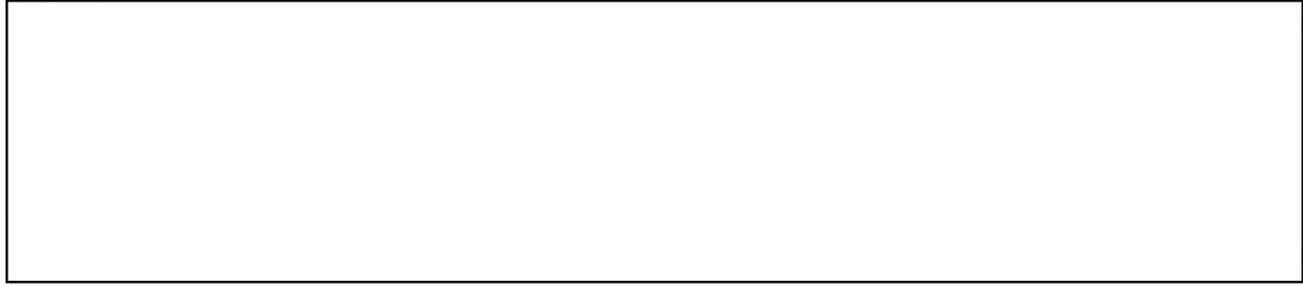

It's clear to me that FPL prioritizes both reliability and responsiveness. Their support has made a real difference, especially during storm recovery and new development projects, and that's something I value deeply. It is for those reasons and many others; I am writing to inform you that I am in favor of the FPL increase. I've experienced how crucial it is to have a power partner like FPL—especially in a region vulnerable to hurricanes and severe weather. Their responsiveness during outages and commitment to keeping service reliable makes a real difference to businesses like ours. Thank you for your consideration.

Best,

Samantha Roseff
