Comment: This increase is completely unfair and out of the blue. We are stuck in a hole we can't climb out of !! We pay lot rent , electricity ,and fooood so it's not like everyone can give up much to cover the increased water and sewer. Do they give up food ? Have to keep lawns up because we are responsible to keep our yards good or we get nasty grams if we don't . Most of the people here live just off of social security !!! This should be stress free for people that at the end of their youth and retirement age !!! Not have to go back to work at 70 to be able to live ??please be humane and remember one day yall will have family that don't need this kind of greedy companies in their lives . Please remember compassion goes a long way and in the end you get paid better than by the ole mighty $
