The following Commissioners participated in the disposition of this matter:

ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE WHY A FINE SHOULD NOT
BE IMPOSED FOR VIOLATION OF RULE 25-4.0161(2), F.A.C.

BY THE COMMISSION:

Charles Kaye has been a certificated pay telephone service (PATS) provider since December 5, 1991. As a certificated PATS provider, Mr. Kaye is subject to our jurisdiction pursuant to Chapter 364 Florida Statutes.

In December 1990 a regulatory assessment fee (RAF) return form for the period July 1, 1991 through December 31, 1991 was sent to all PATS providers. The RAF Return form was recently redesigned to serve as both the RAF Return and as the Annual Report required by Rule 25-24.520 Florida Administrative Code. The forms were due in the Bureau of Fiscal Services so as to comply with Rule 25-4.0161(2), Florida Administrative Code.

Rule 25-4.0161(2) provides:

Regulatory assessment fees and the applicable regulatory assessment fee return form are due each January 30 for the preceding period or any part of the period from July 1 to December 31, and on July 30 for the preceding period or any part of the period from January 1 until June ....From PSC/CMU 26, entitled "Pay Telephone Service Provider Regulatory Assessment Fee Return." Each company shall have up to and including the due date in which to submit the applicable form and:

- (a) Remit the total amount of its fee, or
- (b) Remit an amount which the company estimates is its full fee, or

FILED RECORDS (RECORDING)

- (c) Seek and receive from the Commission a 30-day extension of its due date.

The current form is also designed to conform with the annual report requirements of 25-24.520. Previously these requirements necessitated the use of two separate forms, which have been merged to facilitate the process for small PATS providers.

Mr. Kaye failed to timely file a RAF return, has not paid a RAF fee amount for the period between July 1, 1991 through December 31, 1991, nor did he request an extension of time in order to comply. Mr. Kaye did pay his RAF on June 16, 1992.

Pursuant to Section 364.285, Florida Statutes, this Commission is authorized to levy a fine of up to $25,000 for each violation of a statute, rule or order subject to the Commission's jurisdiction or to revoke a certificate of public convenience and necessity. Accordingly, we find it appropriate to require Mr. Kaye to show cause in writing why he should not be fined $100, or in the alternative, have his certificate revoked for failure to file his 1991 RAF Return as required by Rule 25-4.0161(2). All responses to this Order to Show Cause shall be filed in conformance with Rules 25-22.036(7)(a) and 25-22.037(1), Florida Administrative Code. Mr. Kaye's response shall contain specific statements as to fact and law.

If Mr. Kaye fails to respond to this show cause in the form and within the time limits prescribed, the facts alleged in this Order shall be deemed true and shall constitute an admission of the allegations set forth herein and waiver of the right to a hearing. If no response is received from Mr. Kaye, we find it appropriate that no fine be imposed and that Mr. Kaye's certificate is hereby cancelled.

To avoid the potential of either a fine or revocation of its certificate as a result of this show cause order, Mr. Kaye may request voluntary cancellation of his certificate. If Mr. Kaye requests cancellation of its certificate, this show cause order is withdrawn. A request for cancellation pursuant to this Order shall be filed within the time limits set forth herein. A request for cancellation of a certificate must include (a) a statement of intent and date to pay Regulatory Assessment Fee and (b) a statement of why the certificate is proposed to be cancelled. Payment of fine or a written request to cancel a certificate should be mailed to:
