Fla. Public Service Commission
Division of Water and Sewer

ORDER INDICATING NONJURISDICTIONAL STATUS
OF JENKS AVENUE CHURCH OF CHRIST AND CLOSING DOCKET

BY THE COMMISSION:

On August 24, 1992, Jenks Avenue Church of Christ (Jenks Avenue Church) filed an application with this Commission for recognition of nonjurisdictional status, pursuant to Section 367.021(12), Florida Statutes. Mr. Bob Backus, Chairman, Steering Committee, filed the application on behalf of Jenks Avenue Church.

Upon request and sufficient proof, the Commission will issue an order indicating the nonjurisdictional or exempt status of water or wastewater systems if they qualify under the appropriate provision of Chapter 367, Florida Statutes. According to the application, water is provided only to the Church, there is no charge for providing the service, and all costs of providing service are treated or recovered as operational expenses.

Section 367.021(12), Florida Statutes, states that a "utility means a water or wastewater utility and except as provided in Section 367.022, includes every person, lessee, trustee, or receiver owning, operating, managing or controlling a system, or proposing construction of a system, who is providing or proposes to provide water or wastewater service to the public for compensation."

The water system for the Jenks Avenue Church will consist of one well, which will serve the 600 seat church auditorium. The well will be constructed upon receipt of an environmental permit from the Department of Environmental Regulation. Because the Jenks Avenue Church will not be providing water service to the public for compensation based on the facts as represented, we find that it is not a utility pursuant to Section 367.021(12), Florida Statutes. However, should there be any change in circumstances or method of operation, the owners of the Jenks Avenue Church or any successors in interest, must inform the Commission within 30 days of such change so that we may review the matter to determine whether nonjurisdictional status is still appropriate.

It is, therefore,

ORDERED by the Florida Public Service Commission, based upon the facts as represented, Jenks Avenue Church of Christ, 3332 Jenks Avenue, Panama City, Florida 32405, is not a water utility subject to this Commission's jurisdiction, pursuant to the provisions of Section 367.021(12), Florida Statutes. It is further ORDERED that should there be any change in circumstances or method of operation, the owners of Jenks Avenue Church of Christ or any successors in interest, shall inform this Commission within 30 days of such a change so that we may re-evaluate the Church's nonjurisdictional status. It is further ORDERED that Docket No. 920844-WU is hereby closed.

By ORDER of the Florida Public Service Commission this 30th day of September, 1992.

NOTICE OF FURTHER PROCEEDINGS OR JUDICIAL REVIEW

The Florida Public Service Commission is required by Section 120.59(4), Florida Statutes, to notify parties of any administrative hearing or judicial review of Commission orders that is available under Sections 120.57 or 120.68, Florida Statutes, as well as the procedures and time limits that apply. This notice should not be construed to mean all requests for an administrative hearing or judicial review will be granted or result in the relief sought.

Any party adversely affected by the Commission's final action in this matter may request: 1) reconsideration of the decision by filing a motion for reconsideration with the Director, Division of Records and Reporting within fifteen (15) days of the issuance of this order in the form prescribed by Rule 25-22.060, Florida Administrative Code; or 2) judicial review by the Florida Supreme Court in the case of an electric, gas or telephone utility or the First District Court of Appeal in the case of a water or sewer utility by filing a notice of appeal with the Director, Division of Records and Reporting and filing a copy of the notice of appeal and the filing fee with the appropriate court. This filing must be completed within thirty (30) days after the issuance of this order, pursuant to Rule 9.110, Florida Rules of Civil Procedure. The notice of appeal must be in the form specified in Rule 9.900 (a), Florida Rules of Appellate Procedure.
