On August 24, 1992, Canterbury - Florida's Equestrian Showplace (Canterbury) filed an application with this Commission for recognition of nonjurisdictional status, pursuant to Section 367.021(12), Florida Statutes. Canterbury is a facility that provides horse-back riding and horse shows, etc., in Alachua County that provides water and wastewater service to the Canterbury facilities without compensation. Upon request and sufficient proof, the Commission will issue an order indicating the nonjurisdictional or exempt status of water or wastewater systems if they qualify under the appropriate provision of Chapter 367, Florida Statutes. In its application, Canterbury stated that it provides water and wastewater services to the Canterbury facilities without compensation. In addition, they indicated that all costs for providing water service would be treated or recovered as operational expenses.

Canterbury acknowledged Section 837.06, Florida Statutes, regarding false statements. Canterbury has complied with Rules 25-30.060(1), (2), and (3)(j), Florida Administrative Code.

Section 367.021(12), Florida Statutes, states that a "utility means a water or wastewater utility and except as provided in Section 367.022, Florida Statutes, includes every person, lessee, trustee, or receiver owning, operating, managing or controlling a system, or proposing construction of a system, who is providing or proposes to provide water or wastewater service to the public for compensation."

Based on the facts as represented, we find that Canterbury - Florida's Equestrian Showplace is not a utility pursuant to Section
