ORDER INDICATING NONJURISDICTIONAL
STATUS OF CHRISTIAN LIFE FELLOWSHIP

BY THE COMMISSION:

On September 23, 1992, Christian Life Fellowship filed an application with this Commission for recognition of nonjurisdictional status, pursuant to Section 367.021(12), Florida Statutes. The applicant is a non-profit church facility in Alachua County that operates a water system at 19817 W. Newberry Road in Newberry, Florida. Christian Life Fellowship provides water service solely to the church members and guests without compensation. Wastewater service is provided by a private septic tank located at the church site. The mailing address for Christian Life Fellowship is P.O. Box 1607, Newberry, Florida, 32669. The contact person is Reverend Gary Bracewell.

Upon request and sufficient proof, the Commission will issue an order indicating the nonjurisdictional or exempt status of water or wastewater systems if they qualify under the appropriate provision of Chapter 367, Florida Statutes. The application was filed in accordance with Section 367.021(12), Florida Statutes, and Rules 25-30.060(1), (2), and (3)(j), Florida Administrative Code. The applicant stated in its application that it provides water service solely to the church members and guests without compensation and that all costs for providing such service are treated or recovered as operational expenses. Furthermore, it acknowledged Section 837.06, Florida Statutes, regarding false statements.

Section 367.021(12), Florida Statutes, states that a "utility means a water or wastewater utility and except as provided in Section 367.022, Florida Statutes, includes every person, lessee, trustee, or receiver owning, operating, managing or controlling a system, or proposing construction of a system, who is providing or proposes to provide water or wastewater service to the public for compensation."

Based on the facts as represented, we find that Christian Life Fellowship is not a utility pursuant to Section 367.021(12),
