ORDER INDICATING NONJURISDICTIONAL STATUS OF CHRIST EVANGELICAL LUTHERAN CHURCH

BY THE COMMISSION:

On August 24, 1992, Christ Evangelical Lutheran Church filed an application with this Commission for recognition of nonjurisdictional status, pursuant to Section 367.021(12), Florida Statutes. The applicant operates a water system located two miles south of Keystone Heights on State Road 21, which provides water service through an on-site well solely to the church without compensation. Wastewater service is provided by an on-site septic tank. The contact person is Reverend Brian J. Adams, P.O. Box 125, Keystone Heights, Florida 32656.

Upon request and sufficient proof, the Commission will issue an order indicating the nonjurisdictional or exempt status of water or wastewater systems if they qualify under the appropriate provision of Chapter 367, Florida Statutes. The application was filed in accordance with Section 367.021(12), Florida Statutes, and Rule 25-30.060(1), (2), and (3)(j), Florida Administrative Code. The applicant stated in its application that it provides water service solely to the church without compensation and that all costs for providing such service are treated or recovered as operational expenses. Furthermore, it acknowledged Section 837.06, Florida Statutes, regarding false statements.

Section 367.021(12), Florida Statutes, states that a "utility means a water or wastewater utility and except as provided in Section 367.022, Florida Statutes, includes every person, lessee, trustee, or receiver owning, operating, managing or controlling a system, or proposing construction of a system, who is providing or proposes to provide water or wastewater service to the public for compensation."

Based on the facts as represented, we find that Christ Evangelical Lutheran Church is not a utility pursuant to Section 367.021(12), Florida Statutes. However, should there be any change in circumstances or method of operation, the owner of Christ Evangelical Lutheran Church or any successor in interest shall inform this Commission within 30 days of the change so we may reevaluate its nonjurisdictional status.
