We are sending another of those "asset purchase agreement" dockets to Legal and CMU for handling. This one is between International Exchange Communications, Inc. d/b/a IE COM and NOSVA Limited Partnership--both are holders of IXC certs. The letter says IE COM will purchase and NOSVA will sell "the international operating division of NOSVA which markets under the names 'International Plus' and '011 Communications'..." By that I suppose they are talking about NOS Communications, Inc. d/b/a International Plus d/b/a O11 Communications [and now also d/b/a Internet Business Association per Order PSC-00-0156] but they don't specifically mention those cert holders in this letter. Should the title read thus:

Request by International Exchange Communications, Inc. d/b/a IE COM (holder of IXC Cert 5798) and NOSVA Limited partnership (holder of IXC Cert 3560) for approval of an asset purchase agreement wereby IE COM will purchase and NOSVA will sell the international operating division of NOSVA, including all customers thereof.

Is that sufficient?

Kay
