Ok. He did have a handwritten note on his cancellation letter saying that he was submitting his RAF for year 2000. What I have is a copy of his letter and a copy of the $50.00 check and I've document numbered it separate from PATS app. Thank you for your expertise.

Hi Linda,

I had spoken with this gentleman last week. His intention is to cancel his current certificate and apply for a new PATS certificate at the same time. We don't need an effective date because he wants the cancellation and approval to coincide so he doesn't have any uncertificated time. Don't bother mentioning the RAF payment, just forward it to Administration with a note that it is the 2000 RAF's for Certificate 5601 if that isn't in the letter already.

We make them pay their RAF's in advance when cancelling certificates so they don't get confused by RAF letters after they have been cancelled. He just did it all together to save time.

Take Care,

Toni

Hi Toni. We have a copy of a letter and $50.00 check from this company requesting cancellation of Cert 5601 and he sent a new application and filing fee in the name of Amity Enterprises Inc. d/b/a Food Mart Express. My question is, should I put this letter in the new docket and call the new docket a cancellation of PATS Cert 5601 and pats application by new company and enter the RAF payment in the new docket also?

Thanks Toni.
