General IXC Tariff – Section I

DEFINITIONS

ACCOUNT RECEIVABLE - An individual charge associated with an eligible call purchased from an IXC according to the terms and conditions of the Company's Billing and Collection Services Agreement.

AFFILIATE - Any person that controls or is controlled by the Company or that is controlled by the same person that controls the Company, and includes a related person.

AUTOMATIC DIALING-ANNOUNCING DEVICE (ADAD) - Any automatic equipment incorporating the capability of storing or producing telephone numbers to be called, used alone or in conjunction with other equipment to convey a prerecorded or synthesized voice message to the telephone number called.

BCS ACCESS - The basic component of Business Communications Service which provides a point of access from which a customer can place and receive calls over the public switched telephone network and access basic and enhanced BCS features.

BUILDING - A structure with outside walls and a roof. An adjoining building with abutting walls with its own entrance and buildings separated by a public thoroughfare or connected by enclosed or underground passageways are considered as separate buildings.

CENTRAL OFFICE - An operating unit equipped with apparatus by means of which connection is established between Primary Services.

CIRCUIT - An analog voice-grade channel or a digital 64 kbps (DS-0) channel.

CIRCUIT GROUP - A group of equivalent circuits.

COMMISSION – Florida Public Service Commission

COMPANY – Awesome Communications, Inc.

COMPETITIVE LOCAL EXCHANGE CARRIER (CLEC) – As defined by the Telecommunications Act of 1996

COMPETITIVE PAY TELEPHONE SERVICE PROVIDER (CPTSP) - A Company or individual which provides competitive pay telephone service for use by the general public. For the purposes of this tariff, the Competitive Pay Telephone Service Provider is the Company's customer.

CONNECTION - The electrical and/or physical interfacing of customer-provided terminal equipment to equipment or facilities of the Company.

CONTIGUOUS EXCHANGE AREAS - Exchange areas of which the boundaries are common at any point, except where such common boundary consists of a natural barrier.

CONTINUOUS PROPERTY - The land, together with any buildings thereon, occupied by the customer, which does not extend across other property not occupied by the customer, or a public thoroughfare. However, land occupied by the customer which fronts on both sides of a public thoroughfare and opposite to one another would be considered to be continuous property.

CONTROL - Includes control in fact, whether or not through one or more persons.

CUSTOMER - A person or legal entity, including a reseller or sharing group, that purchases telecommunications services from the Company, and is liable to the Company for those services. (Also, for the purposes of this definition, see RESELLER.)

CUSTOMER'S PREMISES - The continuous property and the building or buildings located thereon, or the portion or portions of a building, occupied by the customer.

DAL or DIRECT ACCESS LINE - A network arrangement used to transmit traffic over a dedicated facility between a Carrier's or Other Service Provider's interexchange network and a subscriber's premises.

DEDICATED SERVICE - A telecommunications service which is dedicated to the private communications needs of a user, where one end of the facility used to provide the service is terminated at equipment dedicated to the user.

EQUIVALENT NETWORK ACCESS LINES - Two or more network access lines provided for a customer at one location and arranged so that an incoming call for the telephone number listed for the group of network access lines is routed to an idle network access line in the group.

EXCHANGE AREA - A geographical area established by the Company for the administration and furnishing of telephone service.

EXCHANGE CLUSTER - A grouping of exchanges which retain their exchange identity (i.e., V&H Co-ordinates and name) but which are treated as one for local rating and local calling areas.

FEATURE INTERWORKING - Refers to the ability to route calls based on selected combinations of the routing criteria specified in Item 800.

FLAT RATE - A tariff charge which includes access and usage.

GENERAL IXC TARIFF - The document titled "General IXC Tariff" containing the Commission approved Rates, Charges and Regulations governing the monopoly services furnished by the Company.

GRADE OF SERVICE - The term used to refer to specific types of Single Line Service. Only One-Party service is available

INTERCONNECTING CIRCUIT - A circuit that connects an IXC's facility to a facility of the Company to provide access to the Company's public switched telephone network (PSTN). An interconnecting circuit may connect:

- (1) an IXC's facility to a Company Central Office to which customer lines are directly connected (end office); or
- (2) an interexchange circuit to a Company Centrex switch; or
- (3) a local circuit from an IXC's switch to a Company Centrex switch; or
- (4) an IXC's facility to a Company Central Office to which end offices are directly connected in order to originate or terminate toll traffic (toll office).

INTER-EXCHANGE CARRIER (IXC) - A long distance service provider that provides the network connectivity to complete an interstate or inter LATA call.

INTER-EXCHANGE SERVICE or INTER-EXCHANGE FACILITY - A service or facility configured to operate between any two exchanges for which Message Toll Service charges would apply, including overseas and international services and facilities.

JOINT-USE BASIS - On a basis in which a circuit is not dedicated to a single user.

LINE-SIDE ACCESS - Any connecting arrangement provided by the Company to an IXC over which PSTN dial tone is delivered or access to the Company's 800 Service is provided to the IXC, by means of an interconnecting circuit, enabling the IXC to access or egress the Company's PSTN.

LOCAL CALL - A call terminating within the same Local Calling Area from which it was originated.

LOCAL CALLING AREA - The area within which a customer can place a call without incurring Long Distance Service charges. An Exchange Area's Local Calling Area includes the area within the Exchange Area's boundary and may include additional contiguous Exchange Areas.

LOCAL RATE CENTER - A point(s), designated by the Company, within an Exchange Area which is used in determining rate distances for services located entirely within the same Exchange Area.

LONG DISTANCE CALL - Telephone service between exchange areas where Extended Area Service is not provided.

MEASURED RATE - A tariff charge for usage. The usage charge may be determined by one or more of the following: frequency, duration, distance, time of day, day of the week and holidays.

NETWORK ACCESS LINE - The Company-provided circuit used to provide access to the Company's central office for the provision of Primary Service.

OPERATOR SERVICES - A service performed by Operating Company operators, at the request of an IXC operator or an IXC subscriber, for calls delivered to the operators from the IXC's network. Operator services include call interruption, long distance directory assistance, 800/888/877/866 directory assistance and completion of calls to non-dialable points C

OVERFLOW ROUTING - A service which is available when an IXC has Direction Connection to the Company's serving switch. With this service, any traffic which is blocked from using the Direction Connection is rerouted to the IXC's Access Tandem Connection.

OVERSEAS CIRCUIT - A circuit which connects a service or a facility of an international service provider to a country other than the United States, directly or via an Overseas Carrier, for the purpose of providing overseas services.

PERSON - A partnership, firm, body corporate or politic, government or department thereof and the legal representatives of such person.

PRIMARY SERVICE - Service provided and maintained by the Company which allows the customer basic access to and use of the public switched telephone network for the purpose of originating and receiving local and long distance calls subject to the appropriate rates and regulations set out in this General IXC Tariff.

PRIMARY SERVICE LOCATION - That location where the customer's Primary Service is located. This is determined by the Company according to where the majority of service is located.

PUBLIC SWITCHED TELEPHONE NETWORK (PSTN) - Company equipment, including switching and transmission equipment, which is used for communications by the general public.

RELATED - A person is "related" to another if (1) either holds, either directly or indirectly, at least a 20% interest in, or any options to acquire at least a 20% interest in, any of the capital, assets, property, profits, earnings, revenues or royalties of the other, or (2) any third party holds, directly or indirectly, at least a 20% interest in, or any options to acquire at least a 20% interest in, any of the capital, assets, property, profits, earnings, revenues or royalties of each of the persons.

RELAY SERVICE - An English and French language service, available on a 24 hour per day, seven day per week basis, which enables a person using a Telecommunications Device for the Deaf (TDD) to send a message to, or receive a message from, other telephone users who do not employ a TDD to communicate, by relating the parties' messages through an operator.

RESALE - The subsequent sale or lease on a commercial basis, with or without adding value, of a telecommunications service leased from an IXC or from the Company.

RESELLER - A person engaged in resale.

For the purposes of this definition, and for greater certainty:

- a customer is deemed not to act as a reseller or as a sharing group if the telecommunications services that it purchases from the Company are used only by a company and one or more affiliates (as defined in this tariff item with the substitution of "customer" for "company"); a company and its franchises or authorized franchisees; or a co-operative organization and its associated member companies.
- a government is deemed not to act as a reseller or as a sharing group if the telecommunications services that it purchases are used only by departments, agencies, crown corporations or other entities:
- declared by statute to be part of the government in question; or
- with respect to the employees of which the government has the obligation as employer.

RESPONSIBLE ORGANIZATION (RESP ORG) - The entity identified by the 800/888/877/866 Subscriber or Agent that assumes the duty of managing and administering the 800/888/877/866 record (number) in the 800/888/877/866 Service Management System on behalf of the 800/888/877/866 Subscriber.

SERVICE CHARGES - A charge applied at the time of installation of the service and upon subsequent addition, moves and changes.

SERVING CENTER - A central office, or two or more central offices located in the same building.

DEFINITIONS (cont.)

SHARING - The use by two or more persons, in an arrangement not involving resale, of a telecommunications service leased from an IXC or the Company.

SHARING GROUP - A group of persons engaged in sharing. (See, for the purposes of this definition, RESELLER above.)

STANDARD SERVICE CHARGES (S.S.C.) – charges for services provided

STANDBY CIRCUIT - An interconnecting circuit with line or trunk-side access which has been activated but rendered incapable, by the Company, of carrying traffic.

SUBSCRIBER - A person for whom telecommunications equipment, facilities or service have been provided by an IXC.

SUPPLEMENTARY SERVICES - Services provided and maintained by the Company that serve to supplement or enhance a customer's Primary Service.

TOLL OFFICE - An operating and serving unit used to furnish Inter-Exchange Services.

TOLL RATE CENTER - A point, designated by the Company, within an Exchange Area which is used in determining rate distances for Inter-Exchange Services.

TRUNK-SIDE ACCESS - Any connecting arrangement provided by the Company to an IXC, by means of an interconnecting circuit between their respective switches, over which 1+, 0+, 00-, 10XXX, 1-8XX, 01+ and 011+ can be routed to the IXC's network and over which traffic from the IXC's network can be routed for termination in the local PSTN.

USER - A person or a member of a sharing group using a telecommunications service or facility for the person's or member's private communications needs.

- 2.0.1 Awesome Communications services are furnished for communications originating within the United States under terms of this tariff. The Company's services are available twenty-four hours per day, seven days a week.

Awesome Communications arranges for installation, operation, and maintenance of the communications services provided in the tariff for Customers in accordance with the terms and conditions set forth under this tariff. AC may act as the Customer's agent for ordering access connection facilities provided by other carriers or entities, when authorized by the Customer.

- 2.0.2 Services provided under this tariff may be used by the Customer for any lawful telecommunications purpose for which the service is technically suited

- 2.0.3 Governing Law: This tariff is governed and interpreted according to the laws of Florida.

2.1.0 Limitations

- 2.1.1 Service is offered subject to the availability of the necessary facilities and /or equipment and subject to the provisions of this tariff. The Company may decline application for service to or from a location where the necessary facilities or equipment are not available. The Company may discontinue furnishing service in accordance with the terms of this tariff.

General IXC Tariff – Section II

- 2.1.2 The Company reserves the right to discontinue service when necessitated by conditions beyond its control, or when the Customer is using the service in violation of the provisions of this tariff, or in violation of the law.
- 2.1.3 The Company does not undertake to transmit messages, but offers the use of its facilities when available, and will not be liable for errors in transmission or failure to establish connection.
- 2.1.4 The Company reserves the right to discontinue service, limit service, or to impose requirements on Customers as required to meet changing regulatory or statutory rules and standards, or when such rules and standards have an adverse material affect on the business or economic feasibility of providing service, as determined by The Company in its reasonable judgement.

General IXC Tariff – Section II

2.2.0 Assignment or Transfer

2.2.1 All service provided under this tariff is directly or indirectly controlled The Company and neither the Customer nor its Authorized Users may transfer or assign the use of service without the express prior written consent of the Company. Such transfer or assignment shall only apply where there is no interruption of the use or location of service. All terms and conditions contained in this tariff shall apply to all such permitted transferees or assignees, as well as all conditions of service.

2.3.0 Liability

2.3.1 The liability of The Company for damages of any nature arising from errors, mistakes, omissions, interruptions, or delays of the Company, its agents, servants, or employees, in the course of establishing, furnishing, rearranging, moving, terminating, maintaining, restoring, or changing the service or facilities or equipment shall not exceed an amount to the charges applicable under this tariff (calculated on a proportionate basis where appropriate) to the period during which such error, mistake, omission, interruption or delay occurs.

2.3.2 In no event shall The Company be liable for any incidental, indirect, special or consequential damages (including lost revenue or profits) of any kind whatsoever regardless of the cause of foresee ability thereof.

2.3.3 When the services or facilities of other common carriers are used separately or in conduction with The Company's facilities or equipment in establishing connection to points not reached by Company's facilities or equipment , The Company shall not be liable for any act or omission of such other common carriers or their agents, servants or employees.

2.3.4 The Company shall not be liable for any failure of performance hereunder if such failure is due t any cause or causes beyond the reasonable control of the Company. Such causes shall include without, without limitations, acts of God, fire, explosion, vandalism, terrorism, cable cut, storm or similar occurrence, any low , order regulation, direction, action or request of the United States government or any of the government or of any civil military authority, national emergencies, insurrections, riots, wars, strikes, lockouts, or work stoppages or other labor difficulties, supplier failures, shortages, breached or delays, or preemption of existing service to restore service in compliance with the Commission's Rules and Regulations.

General IXC Tariff – Section II

2.3.5 The Company shall not be liable for interruptions, delays, errors or defects in transmission, or for any injury whatsoever, caused by the Customer, the Customer's agents, or Authorized Users, or by facilities or equipment provided by the Customer.

2.3.6 The Customer shall indemnify, defend and hold harmless the Company (including the costs of reasonable attorney's fees) against:

- a) Claims for libel, slander, infringement of copyright or unauthorized use of any trademark, trade name or serviceman arising out of the material, data information, or other content transmitted over the Company's facilities or equipment.
- b) Claims for patent infringement arising from combining or connecting the Company's facilities or equipment, apparatus or systems of the Customer, and
- c) All other claims (including, without limitation, claims for damage to any business or property, or injury to, or death of, any person) arising out of any act or omission of the Customer, the Customer's agents or Authorized Users, in connection with any service or facilities or equipment provided by the Company.

2.4.0 Minimum Period

2.4.1 The minimum period for which services are provided and for which rates and charges are applicable is one (1) month unless otherwise specified in this tariff. Or by mutually agreed upon contract. When a service is discontinued prior to the expiration of the minimum period, charges are applicable whether the service is used or not.

2.5.0 Responsibility for Charges

2.5.1 Charges for installations, service connections, moves, rearrangements and prepaid services, where applicable, are payable upon demand to the Company or its authorize agent. Billing thereafter will include recurring charges and actual usage as defined in this tariff. The Customer is responsible for payment of all charges for services and equipment furnished to the Customer for transmission of calls via the Company.

2.5.2 Validity of Bill – customer may challenge the validity of a bill within a 180 days from the date that the bill was issued. The Commission may review billing and charges for any customer as the Commission warrants.

General IXC Tariff – Section II

2.5.2 All charges due by the Customer are payable to the Company or any agent duly authorized to receive such payments. Any objections to billed charges must be promptly reported to the Company or its billing agent. Adjustments to Customers bills shall be made to the extent, that circumstances exist which reasonably indicate that such changes are appropriate.

2.5.3 The Company reserves the right to assess a late payment fee of 1.5% per month on any past due balance.

2.5.4 The Company reserves the right to assess a return check charge of $20.00 whenever a check or draft presented for payment is not accepted by the institution upon which it is written.

2.6.0 Deposits

2.6.1 The Company reserves the right to examine the credit record of the Customer, If the Customer's financial condition is unknown or unacceptable to the Company, the Customer may be required to provide the Company with a security deposit which the Company may apply against overdue charges. The amount of the security deposit shall not exceed two (2) months estimated usage, may vary with the customer's credit history and projected usage, and be collected and maintained in accordance with Commission rules. The fact that a security deposit has been made in no way relieves the Customer from the prompt payment of bills upon presentation. Company will pay interest of 5% per annum for customer deposits retained for more than six months.

2.7.0 Advance Payment

2.7.1 For Customers whom the Company determines an advance payment is necessary, the Company reserves the right to collect an amount not to exceed two (2) months estimated charges as an advance payment for service. This will be applied against the next moth's charges and a new advanced payment may be collected for the next month, if necessary.

2.8.0 Taxes and Fees

2.8.1 The Company reserves the right to bill any and all applicable taxes and fees in addition to the normal rates and charges for services provided to the customer. Taxes and fees include, but are not limited to:

- a) Federal Excise Tax
- b) State Sales Tax
- c) Municipal Tax
- d) Gross Receipts Tax

Such taxes and fees are in addition to rates as quoted in this tariff and will.

General IXC Tariff – Section II

2.9.0 Facilities

2.9.1 The Company's facilities and service may be used with, or terminated in terminal equipment or communications systems such as a PBX, key system, single line telephone or pay telephone. Such terminal equipment shall be furnished and maintained at the expenses of the Customer. The Customer is responsible for all costs at his or her premises, including personnel, wiring, electrical power, and the like, incurred in the use of the Company's service. When such terminal equipment is used, the equipment shall comply with the generally accepted minimum protective criteria standards of the telecommunications industry.

2.10.0 Interconnections

2.10.1 Service furnished by the Company may be interconnected with services or facilities of other authorized communications common carriers and with private systems, subject to technical limitations established by the Company. Service furnished by the Company is not part of a joint undertaking with such other common carriers or systems. The Company does not undertake to provide any special facilities, equipment, or services to enable Customer to interconnect the facilities or the equipment of the Company with services or facilities of other common carriers or with private system.

2.10.2 Interconnection with the services or facilities of other common carriers shall be under the applicable terms and conditions of the tariff and the other common carrier's tariff or tariff equivalents.

2.11.0 Inspection, Testing and Adjustment

2.11.1 The Company may, upon reasonable notice, make such tests and inspections as may be necessary to determine whether the terms and conditions of this tariff are being complied with in the installation, operation or maintenance of the Customer's or the Company's facilities or equipment. The Company may interrupt service at any time, without penalty or liability, due to the departure from or reasonable suspicion of the departure from any of these terms and conditions.

General IXC Tariff – Section II

2.12.0 Credit Allowances for Interruption of Service

- 2.12.1 Credit allowances for interruption of service which are not due to the Company's inspection or testing, to the negligence of the Customer, or to the failure of channels, equipment and/or communications systems provided by the Customer, are subject to the general liability provisions set forth in this tariff.

It shall be the obligation of the Customer to notify the Company immediately of any interruption in service for which a credit allowance is desired by Customer. Before giving such notice, the Customer shall ascertain that the trouble is not within his or her control, or is not in wiring or equipment, if any, furnished by Customer.

For purposes of credit computation every month shall be considered to have 30 days. The Customer shall be credited for an interruption of one day (24 hours) or more at the rate of 1/30th of the monthly charge for the services affected for each day that the interruption continues.

Credit Formula:

$$\text{Credit} = A/30 \times B$$

A = outage time in days

B = total monthly charge for affected service

2.13.0 Cancellation by the Customer

- 2.13.1 The Customer may have service discontinued upon written notice to the Company. The Company shall hold the Customer responsible for payment of all bills for service furnished until the cancellation date specified by the Customer or until the date that the written cancellation notice is received, whichever is later.

2.14.0 Discontinuance or Refusal by Company

- 2.14.1 Service continues to be provided until canceled by the Customer, in writing, or until discontinued by the Company as set forth in the following sections. The Company may render bills subsequent to the termination of service for charges incurred before termination.
- 2.14.2 For Nonpayment: The Company, by written notice to the Customer and in accordance with applicable law, may discontinue service or cancel and application for service without incurring any liability when there is an unpaid balance for service that is more than 30 days overdue. The customer will be sent a notice giving them 5 days to to clear the bill before the company will disconnect service.

2.14.3 For Returned Checks: The Customer whose check or draft is returned unpaid for any reason, after two attempts at collection, shall be subject to discontinuance of service in the same manner as provided for nonpayment of overdue charges.

General IXC Tariff – Section II

- 2.14.4 For Lack of Use; The Company, by written notice to the Customer, may discontinue service in the same manner as provided for nonpayment of overdue charges if after forty-five (45) days the services has not been used.
- 2.14.5 For any violation of law or of any of the provisions governing the furnishing of service under this tariff. The Customer shall be subject to discontinuance of service, without notice, for any violation of any law, rule, regulation, or policy of any government authority having jurisdiction over service, or by reasons of any order or decision of a court or other government authority having jurisdiction which prohibits the Company from furnishing such service.
- 2.14.6 For the Company to comply with any order or request of any governmental authority having jurisdiction: The Customer shall be subject to discontinuance of service, without notice, for the Company to comply with any order or request of any governmental authority having jurisdiction.
- 2.14.7 For unauthorized or unlawful use of Travel Service numbers and Authorization Codes; Travel Service numbers and Authorization Codes are issued only by the Company to the Customer and may not be sold or otherwise distributed without the written consent of the Company. An unauthorized or unlawful use of such numbers or codes shall result in the immediate termination of service without notice.

2.15.0 Restoration of Service

- 2.15.1 If service has been discontinued for nonpayment or as otherwise provided herein and the Customer wishes it continued, service shall, at the Company's discretion, be restored when all past due amounts are paid or the event giving rise to the discontinuance (if other than nonpayment) is corrected.
- 2.15.2 Customer may challenge a bill within 60 days of the bill being issued. The LAPSC may review any bill or billing procedure at any time.

2.16.0 Use of Recording Devices

- 2.16.1 Customers and Authorized Users who use recording devices do so at their own risk. A Customer or Authorized User may only use a recording device if the Customer or Authorized User complies with the requirements of this section and only if the Customer or Authorized User is able to connect or disconnect the recording device, or turn the recording device on or off, at will.
- 2.16.2 A Customer or Authorized User may record a conversation if the Customer or Authorized User obtains written or verbal consent to the recording of all parties to the conversation prior to or at the beginning of the conversation.
