Dear Sirs;

We are very satisfied with the present water services we have been receiving here for the past 20 years. We would prefer Fla. Water Services continue to give us their services.

From what we read we do not feel the County is capable of giving us this kind of service.

Dear members,

First off I want to state that I am a Homeowner/Taxpayer of Hernando County. I have no connection to Fla. Water although they supply the water for us. I cannot praise them enough, they are good operators of the water system. I have lived here for 8 years and not one problem with the water. Please don't be misled by the county commission who would let you believe they could regulate the Fla Water better than the P.S.C. The regulatory officials should be unbiased and fair. The local commission can not be unbiased. They have proven that by their past actions. The county ~~commission~~ ^{doesn't} want the state to collect the 350,000 regulatory fees involved. I beg you ~~to~~ ^{to} not let the county be the regulator. The present county commission are not intellectually endowed, at this time.

Dear Chairman Jaber:

It has come to my attention that Florida Water Services is petitioning state officials to strip the counties of its regulatory authority and replace it with the Public Service Commission instead.

I would like to take this opportunity to voice my strong opposition to this request. My Senate District includes all of Hernando County. During the 1997 Legislative Session, I was successful in adding Hernando County to the list of counties that have regulatory authority of water and wastewater systems. I strongly discourage taking this authority from the counties. Consumers are better protected with the counties having this regulatory tool. Local regulation is more effective in governing these entities.

Thank you for your consideration in this matter. Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Hong, you can go ahead and denote Hernando County represented by Robert Bruce Snow, Esquire, 112 North Orange Ave., Brooksville, FL 34601 and Kent Weissinger, Esquire, Hernando County Legal Department, 20 North Main Street, Room 462, Brooksville, FL 34601 as an official party of record.

As to Pasco County, I am going to have them file a formal Notice of Appearance and request for hearing before they are an official party of record.
thanks!

Since Pasco has asked for a formal hearing, I believe that they can be changed to "party" status.
