PLEASE BE GOVERNED ACCORDINGLY.

Florida Rule of Civil Procedure 1.310(b)(6) provides as follows:

In his notice a party may name as the deponent a public or private corporation or a partnership or association or governmental agency and designate with reasonable particularity the matters on which examination is requested. The organization so named shall designate one or more officers, directors, or managing agents, or other persons who consent to do so, to testify on its behalf and may state the matters on which each person designated will testify. The persons so designated shall testify about matters known or reasonably available to the organization. This subdivision does not preclude taking a deposition by any other procedure authorized in these rules.

You are required to designate one or more officers, directors, managing agents or other persons to testify on your behalf regarding the matters as set forth below, and make themselves knowledgeable of that information known or reasonably available to your organization:
