RE: Smart Choice Communications, LLC, TY176, Certificate of Authority Termination Notice

Dear Mr. Teitzman:

Pursuant to Fla. Stat. § 364.335\(3\) (2024), Smart Choice Communications, LLC (“SCC”) notifies the Florida Public Service Commission (“Commission”) of its termination of its Certificate of Authority¹ to provide telecommunications services in Florida and withdrawal of its telecommunications tariff, effective immediately. SCC’s termination of its Certificate of Authority and tariff withdrawal is predicated on the Company’s transition to voice over Internet protocol (“VoIP”) telephony. In support of its termination notice, SCC states as follows.

SCC has ceased in the provision of telecommunications services in Florida, maintains no telecommunications service subscribers in Florida, and no longer requires a Certificate of Authority, accordingly. Further, SCC:

- does not maintain carrier of last resort status
- does not owe monies to any of Florida telecommunications Public Purpose Programs associated with the provision of telecommunications services
- has complied with all applicable regulatory obligations including submission of its annual report and reporting/payment of regulatory fees and
- has no outstanding customer complaints filed with the Commission nor enforcement actions.

¹ In re: Application for authority to provide telecommunications service by Smart Choice Communications, LLC, Docket No. 20190180-TX, Notice of Proposed Agency Action Order Granting Certificate of Authority, Order No. PSC-2019-0519-PAA-TX (December 12, 2019)[Certificate of Authority]
