STAFF'S EIGHTEENTH SET OF INTERROGATORIES
INTERROGATORY NO. 219
BATES PAGE(S): 18682
SEPTEMBER 30, 2025

219. Please refer to PGS's response to Staff's Seventh Set of Interrogatories, No. 72.b. In its response, PGS states, "Residential therm sales experienced a positive deviation of 10.5 percent from budget, driven primarily by the Miami, Tampa, and Orlando divisions. The company is currently investigating the drivers of this variance." Has PGS determined the drivers of the variance? If so, please explain.

ANSWER:

Yes. The company believes the main factor contributing to the May variance was most likely an increase in tourism compared to the ten-year historical average. This trend was noted primarily in Miami, Tampa, and Orlando.

PEOPLES GAS SYSTEM, INC.
DOCKET NO. 20250029-GU
STAFF'S EIGHTEENTH SET OF INTERROGATORIES
SEPTEMBER 30, 2025

222. Refer to the Company's response to Staff's Third Set of Interrogatories No. 16(a) and (e) (Bates 17812, 17814), which explain that OSS sales quantities are estimated based on historical adjusted volumes and are dependent on system load and market dynamics. Refer also to the Company's response to Staff's Ninth Set, No. 87 (Bates 18057), in which the Company states it does not propose to revise the 2025 OSS forecast despite actual OSS performance significantly exceeding budget through April 2025.

a. Given the relatively high level of historical sales of January – April 2025, please reconcile the Company's stated methodology of using "expected market conditions and historical trends" with its decision not to adjust the 2025 OSS forecast in light of current year-to-date performance.

ANSWER:

a. Peoples recognizes the complexity of the natural gas commodity and interstate transportation market. This complexity poses challenges in predicting future opportunities for Off-System Sales ("OSS"). Although Peoples is currently experiencing positive outcomes from OSS, which benefits both customers and the company, it is difficult to forecast future results. Prior to the settlement, Peoples agreed that the 2026 budget for OSS would be adjusted in the rate case based on the Public Service Commission's decision regarding the Transportation Allocation Mechanism petition in Docket No. 20250026-GU, which pertains to the OSS sharing percentage. Any further adjustments to the budget would be challenging to determine without consistent market performance over an extended period. Based on the settlement agreement filed with the commission, all issues in this proceeding are pending resolution and are subsumed in the settlement agreement, therefore there will be no adjustment to OSS.

223. Refer to the Company's response to Staff's Ninth Set of Interrogatories, No. 86, (Bates 18055), and the associated Excel file in Attachment 1 (BS 18056) titled "OSS Margin Forecast 2025–2026."

a. As presented, please clarify if any of the Sales and/or Revenue data appearing in Rows 9 through 14 in the Excel file (data for each month, January through June 2025) is actual data.

b. Column E in the Excel file (MDQ) indicates a uniform daily quantity of 18,000 therms for each month in both 2025 and 2026. Please discuss the basis for this forecasted quantity, addressing in your response if the assumed quantity of 18,000 therms per day reflects the Company's forecast of actual available OSS capacity or contracted volumes during each month in 2025 and 2026.

c. Please explain the basis for the monthly AMA Revenue Forecast of $600,000 (as presented in Column N for October 2025 through December 2026.

d. Identify each of the forecasted series appearing in Attachment 1, define and describe each such series, and provide the source and date of all such forecasts, including, but not limited to, AMA Revenue ("FGT" component and "Storage" component) and "Forecast".

e. Please provide an Excel file (with formulas included) formatted similarly to Attachment 1, containing the following actual monthly OSS margin revenue data (all columns) from January 2024 through June 2025.

f. Please provide an Excel file (with formulas included) formatted similarly to Attachment 1, containing the following: Recalculated OSS margin revenue data for July 2025 through December 2026 based on a 50/50 sharing mechanism between PGA and base revenue, pursuant to Order No. PSC 2025 0090 PCO GU (March 24, 2025), in place of the 75/25 split shown in the original Attachment.

SEPTEMBER 30, 2025

ANSWER:

a. The data in rows 9 through 14 is not actual data, as this schedule is a forecast completed in November of 2024.

b. The Maximum Daily Quantity ("MDQ") of 18,000 in Column E is in MMBtu's, which is equivalent to 180,000 therms. This MDQ represents the quantity specified in a transaction confirmation between the company and a customer and assumes the full contracted quantity will be both taken by this customer and delivered by the company. It is important to note that, as of now, it is uncertain whether the delivery pipeline, Florida Gas Transmission ("FGT"), will confirm the delivery of this entire quantity for the months referenced in the Excel file. Therefore, the quantities in column F (column E x Days of the month) are indicative and cannot be definitively confirmed at this time.

c. The projected monthly revenue of $600,000 from October 2025 to December 2026 was derived by averaging the projected fixed revenue (Column M) from an Asset Management Arrangement ("AMA") for January 2025 to September 2025 and rounded up to adjust for future potential new delivered deals, AMA renewals, and capacity releases.

d. Column D is the Henry Hub Nymex futures price as of November 8, 2024, adjusted for a locational basis delivered price of Florida Gas Transmission Zone 3 as provided by Platt's S&P Global (forecasted Zone 3 price).

Column E and Column F are previously described in the company's response to question b.

Column G are applicable FGT FTS-1 reservation rates.

Column H is Column F times Column D (forecasted commodity price).

Column I is Column F times Column D plus Column F times Column G (commodity price plus transport price).

FPSC EXH NO. 86
ADMITTED

Column J is Column I minus Column H (sale minus purchase equals margin).

Column K is the contracted FGT AMA margin prior to the company revenue split for remaining term of the current AMA transaction. Please note that the AMA term expires September 30, 2025.

Column L is the contracted Storage AMA margin prior to the company revenue split for the term of the current AMA transaction. Please note that the AMA term expired March 31, 2025.

Column M is Column K plus Column L (FGT plus Storage).

Column N is previously described in the company's response to question c.

e. Peoples is answering this interrogatory in part by producing a document as allowed under Florida Rule of Civil Procedure 1.340(c); the documents reflecting the actual monthly OSS margin revenue data (all columns) from January 2024 through June 2025 is provided in the folder entitled "ROG_18_223_e" and will be posted on the Consumer Party SharePoint Site or provided via USB.

f. Peoples is answering this interrogatory in part by producing a document as allowed under Florida Rule of Civil Procedure 1.340(c); the documents reflecting the recalculated OSS margin revenue data for July 2025 through December 2026 based on a 50/50 sharing mechanism between PGA and base revenue, pursuant to Order No. PSC-2025-0090-PCO-GU, issued March 24, 2025, is provided in the folder entitled "ROG_18_223_f" and will be posted on the Consumer Party SharePoint Site or provided via USB.

Specific Responses

1. Please refer to PGS witness Fox's Direct Testimony, page 9, line 1-25, and page 10, lines 1-9. For each customer and average use model the Company utilized to obtain the 2026 Test Year customer and therm sales forecasts in this proceeding, please provide the following:

a. PGS's monthly historical and forecasted customer and average use per customer forecasts by division (in excel format with formulas intact and cells unlocked).

b. The models utilized by the company to obtain PGS's monthly historical and forecasted customer and average use forecasts by division (in excel format with formulas intact and cells unlocked). Please include summary statistics and diagnostics for each model.

c. The independent variables chosen for each model, with summary statistics and diagnostics for each.

d. The historical and forecasted data for each independent in 1.c.

e. All out of model adjustments made (to historical and/or forecasted data, model inputs and/or outputs, etc.).

f. For each out-of-model adjustment identified in 1.e., please provide supporting documentation for why the Company deemed the adjustment necessary.

Response:

a. Peoples' non-confidential electronic documents responsive to this request will be served by posting on the SharePoint in the folder entitled "POD_1_1_a" and hand delivered via a USB.

There are four models for each Division in Excel format:
- Residential Average Use (Division_ResUPC)
- Residential Customers (Division_ResCust)
- Commercial Average Use (Division_ComUPC) and
- Commercial Customers (Division_ComCust).

Actual and predicted values can be found on the error tab (ERR).

b. Please see Peoples' response to 1a above. The model statistics are on the Model Statistics tab (MStat).

c. Please see Peoples' response to 1a above. The model variables and statistics are on the Coefficient tab (Coef).

d. Please see Peoples' response to 1a above. The historical and forecasted data for each independent variable is provided in the data tab (Data).

e. Peoples' non-confidential electronic documents responsive to this request will be served by posting on the SharePoint in the folder entitled "POD_1_1_e" and hand delivered via a USB.

There were not any out of model adjustments made to historical data. Forecasted exogenous adjustments can be found in POD_1_1_e.

f. The company relies on the SAE models to predict usage, which has proven highly reliable historically. There is no written documentation for the exogenous adjustments, as Peoples looks at historical trends and gathers verbal insights from market sources to better anticipate the future growth of the Residential housing market. As the market conditions change, it is imperative that the company update the forecast to reflect these known changes.

2. For the following requests, please refer to witness Buzards's direct testimony, page 26, lines 24-25, and page 27, lines 1-3. Witness Buzard states, "The forecasts for the RS-RHP, RTP, CS-GHP, CTP, CS-SG, CTG, CSLS, and CSLT rates are based on recent historical usage data. Additionally, projections for new customers, therm usage, and revenue from known or anticipated projects are incorporated into the forecast."

a. Please provide all documents which explain how the Company forecasted therm usage for these large rate classes.

b. Please provide historical (2020-2024) and projected (2025-2026) customers and therm usage for each class by month.

c. Please provide all relevant documentation on the Company's anticipated projects and how they were incorporated into the forecast.

Response:

a. The Company does not possess any documents explaining how it forecasted therm usage for these rate classes, as these forecasts are based on historical data.

BEFORE THE FLORIDA PUBLIC SERVICE COMMISSION

In re: Petition for Rate Increase by Peoples Gas System, Inc.	DOCKET NO. 20250029-GU FILED: May 27, 2025

PEOPLES GAS SYSTEM, INC.'S RESPONSE TO STAFF'S SECOND REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION OF DOCUMENTS (NOS. 5-6)

Pursuant to Rule 106.206, Florida Administrative Code, and Florida Rule of Civil Procedure 1.350, Peoples Gas System, Inc. ("Peoples" or the "company"), hereby responds to The Staff of the Florida Public Service Commission's ("Staff") Second Request for Production of Documents (Nos. 5-6), served May 7, 2025 ("Staff's Second POD").

General Objections

1. Peoples objects to each Request for Production in Staff's Second POD ("Request") to the extent that it seeks information that is duplicative, not relevant to the subject matter of this docket, and is not reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence.

2. Peoples objects to each Request to the extent it is vague, ambiguous, overly broad, imprecise, or utilizes terms that are subject to multiple interpretations but are not properly defined or explained for purposes of such Requests. Peoples will seek clarification from Staff if a request is not clear, but Peoples will produce documents subject to, and without waiving, this objection.

3. Peoples objects to each Request to the extent it requires Peoples to produce information that is already in the public record before the Florida Public Service Commission ("FPSC" or the "Commission"), or other public agency and/or available to Staff through normal procedures or is readily accessible through legal search engines.

4. Peoples objects to each Request to the extent that it calls for data or information protected by the attorney-client privilege, the work product doctrine, the accountant-client privilege, the trade secret privilege, or any other applicable privilege or protection afforded by law. Peoples will describe the nature of the privileged material, if any, in a privilege log that will accompany its responses.

5. Peoples objects to producing paper copies on the grounds that doing so would be unduly burdensome.

6. Peoples objects to each Request to the extent it requires the company to provide information that it believes is "proprietary confidential business information" as described in Section 366.093, Florida Statutes.

7. Peoples objects to each Request to the extent it requests Peoples to prepare information in a particular format or create data or information that it otherwise does not possess as unduly burdensome and purports to expand Peoples' obligations under applicable law.

8. Subject to Section 366.093(1), Florida Statutes, Peoples objects to any definition or Request that requests documents from persons or entities who are not parties to this proceeding, that seek information from affiliates unrelated to transactions or cost allocations involving Peoples, or that are not otherwise subject to discovery under applicable rules.

9. Subject to Section 366.093(1), Florida Statutes, Peoples objects to any definition or Set that requests documents from persons or entities who are not parties to this proceeding, that seek information from affiliates unrelated to transactions or cost allocations involving Peoples, or that are not otherwise subject to discovery under applicable rules.

10. Peoples objects to any Set requiring the company to provide additional information beyond that obtained through a reasonable and diligent search.

ADMITTED

General Response

Subject to and without waiving its general objections, which are incorporated by reference in each of its specific answers, Peoples will serve its answers to the Commission staff by hand delivering a USB containing its answers to the Commission Clerk's office, and for Staff's purposes, the term "USB" should be substituted for "SharePoint" in the specific answers shown below.

The company's specific answers will identify interrogatories that call for answers that contain (a) information for which the company asserts a legal privilege and/or (b) "proprietary confidential business information" as defined in Section 366.093, Florida Statutes.

An answer that contains information for which the company asserts a legal privilege will be identified in the privilege log attached as Exhibit A.

An answer that contains information the company asserts to be "proprietary confidential business information" will be provided in the Confidential portion of the SharePoint subject to a request for confidential classification, motion for temporary protective order and/or a non-disclosure agreement.

Specific Responses

5. For the capital additions listed on MFR Schedule G-1, pages 23 and 26, for the 2025 and 2026 test years, please provide the following detail, broken out by month, in a spreadsheet for 2025-2027. If the line item includes multiple projects, please breakout the individual projects within each description.

a. In-Service Date
b. Project Plant Components by Account Number, Total Amount, and 13-Month Average Amount in each test year, along with the same detail for corresponding retirements.
c. Project Depreciation Reserve Components by Account Number, Total Amount, and 13-Month Average Amount in each test year, along with the same detail for corresponding retirements.
d. Associated Operating Expense by Account Number and Total Amount in each test year.
e. Detail of associated Deferred Income Taxes.

Response:

a-c Peoples' non-confidential electronic documents responsive to this request will be served by posting on the SharePoint in the folder entitled "POD_2_5" and hand delivered to Staff via a USB.

The methodology used to create the attached file assigns a gas utility account to each project, which is anticipated to represent most of the completed project. This process is only possible with projected data, as actual data would typically include multiple plant accounts for each project.

d. The company does not budget O&M Expense directly for each capital project unless it is a distinct operating unit or system such as an RNG facility or CNG station, or a significant new asset such as the Corporate Headquarters. Instead, the company primarily trends O&M Expense forward using trend factors as shown on MFR Schedule G-2, pages 12 through 19. See MFR Schedule G-2 page 19b Line 44 for the Not Trended O&M Expense related to the new Corporate Headquarters.

e. Peoples' non-confidential electronic documents responsive to this request will be served by posting on the SharePoint in the folder entitled "POD_2_5" and hand delivered via a USB.

Please note the Internal Revenue Code requires the company to maintain fixed asset records for tax purposes by asset class and vintage year, not by unit of property or project. As a result, the company's current fixed asset systems records cannot produce an ADIT schedule for each of the specific asset categories requested. Instead, to derive a reasonable estimate of the ADIT balance as requested for each asset category listed, we are providing a schedule which estimates such ADIT using net book value records and applying the relevant tax depreciation method and life.

ADMITTED

The revenue requirements included in the proposed 2027 Subsequent Year Adjustment ("SYA") include incremental costs associated with the annualization of depreciation and amortization expense, property tax expense and return requirements related to capital investments made during the 2026 test year. The proposed 2027 SYA is not based on a full projected test year for 2027. As a result, the company does not have a "subsequent year projection" for the data requested by this interrogatory.

NOTE: The Internal Revenue Code requires the company to maintain fixed asset records for tax purposes by asset class and vintage year, not by unit of property or project. As a result, the company's current fixed asset systems records cannot produce an ADIT schedule for each of the specific asset categories requested. Instead, to derive a reasonable estimate of the ADIT balance as requested for each asset category listed, we are providing a schedule which estimates such ADIT using net book value records and applying the relevant tax depreciation method and life.

25. Please provide a revenue requirement schedule for the 2026 test year with the proposed adjustments provided in the settlement agreement, to include a break down of adjustments made in rate base, revenues, and operating expenses.

Response:

As noted in the agreement, the 2026 Increase is a negotiated amount. This negotiated amount reflects, for example, the Commission's approval of the company's proposal to adjust the OSS sharing percentage to 50-50 and the company's proposal to remove natural gas facility relocation costs from base rates and is the result of thoughtful consideration among the parties based on the positions they took in the case. Except for the adjustments in paragraph 10 and the work and asset management system software depreciation adjustment in paragraph 7, the Parties did not otherwise agree on specific adjustments to rate base, revenues, or operating expenses.

26. The following items relate to the 2027 subsequent year adjustment.

a. Please provide Document Two from Chronister's direct testimony to reflect the proposed amounts from the Settlement Agreement.

b. If the methodology for calculating the 2027 subsequent year adjustment differs from Chronister's testimony, please provide a revenue requirement schedule to reflect the proposed amounts in the Settlement Agreement.

Response:

a. The 2027 Increase is not based on the methodology in Mr. Chronister's direct testimony. It is a negotiated amount that reflects give and take among the parties based on their evaluation of the risks of litigation and the positions they took in the case.

b. The 2027 Increase is not based on the methodology in Mr. Chronister's direct testimony. It is a negotiated amount that reflects give and take among the parties based on their evaluation of the risks of litigation and the positions they took in the case.
